I timely filed an Amendment, which was received by the USPTO on June 13, 2002. The patent office claims they mailed me a notice of non-complaint on or about June 12, 2002. I asked Mr. Banks for a copy of that notice, which I received today. The copy of the June 2002 Notice of No-Compliant Amendment that Mr. Banks faxed to me has no mailing date and no application number. The only date on the document is "6-4-02" which is a week prior to the USPTO's signed receipt of my Amendment.

I do not feel that it is fair that the USPTO abandoned my application. I don't believe there is any justifiable reason that I should have to petition to revive this application.

Sincerely yours,

Craig Linden

Third Response to Notice of Abandonment

Attention:

Derris H. Banks, Technology Center 3700

I want to remind you that I never received anything from the USPTO in June 2002, nor have I have received the copy you said that you would fax last week.

I believe something is wrong. I have faxed you the signed receipt dated June 13, 2002, evidencing that the USPTO received my amendments and corrected drawings on June 13, 2002. Your office claims they mailed a notice of non-compliance on June 12, 2002 ~ the day prior to the USPTO's receipt of my timely response to the March 2002 office action.

I respectfully request that the USPTO mail and fax me a copy of the June 12, 2002 notice and allow me reasonable time to respond. Please cancel the notice of abandonment, as under the circumstances, it is totally unfair.

Sincerely yours,

Craig Linden

Second Response to Notice of Abandonment

Attention:

Derris H. Banks, Technology Center 3700

Attached is a copy of my December 30, 2002 faxed letter addressed to Ms. Jamila Williams. I have received no response from Ms. Williams. Would you please look into this situation and let me know what happened to my June 2002 response, which was faxed and sent via certified signed receipt mail?

Sincerely,

Craig Linden

Response to Answering Machine Message of December 30, 2002

Attention:

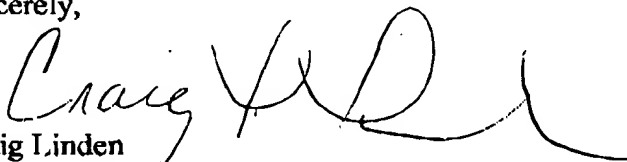

Ms. Jamila Williams, Examiner

Faxed to 703-305-3579 (1 page)

Thank you for your call today regarding the abandonment of my patent application because you believe I did not respond to your office action dated March 25, 2002. However, I did respond on June 4, 2002 by fax and by USPO Certified Return Receipt Mail. Attached is the signed receipt showing I mailed my response on June 5, 2002 and that the USPTO signed for my response on June 13, 2002. The USPTO should have the faxed copy of my June response and the mailed original.

Please let me know if you cannot locate the above documents. I believe the USPTO's possible loss of my documents and their unilateral abandonment of my application are completely unfair acts.

Sincerely,

Craig Linden
